May Meeting: May 13th at 9 am. Stephanie Johnson on Intentional Camera Movement (ICM)

Stephanie is the Founder, Creator & Publisher of ICM Photography Magazine. Her website is www.stephjohnsonphoto.com. In her About Me she indicates "I am self-taught with both ICM (intentional camera movement) and landscape photography. I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree and graduate work in English Literature, and I have a strong emotional connection to the natural world with a deep passion for capturing the fluid nature of landscapes through imagery and the written word. I bring an interconnected and intuitive approach to my photography-as-art to create not just frozen moments in time, but to visually express the essence of light, color, form, line, and texture. Because of this deep philosophy of connectedness with all things, my personal vision is one that integrates creativity in the field with ethical behavior toward the natural environment."

Dues are due!! Please do not forget to bring the annual due of $20 to the January meeting. You will not be allowed to compete without paying your dues.
